TOUR SUMMARY

Tour begins & ends in Bordeaux

FLY FROM U.S. – Leave May 10, arrive May 11 (overnight, Novotel Bordeaux Aéroport)
TOUR BEGINS – At 9 a.m. Sunday, May 12, lobby, Novotel Bordeaux Aéroport
TOUR ENDS – May 24, in the morning (you will fly home from Bordeaux airport today)
12 NIGHTS • TOUR MEALS – Breakfast daily and eight other meals (lunches & dinners)

■ Day 1 (Sunday, May 12)

From our meeting point, the lobby of the Novotel Bordeaux Aéroport, it's a one-hour drive to the Médoc wine region of Bordeaux, world famous for its reds. We first visit the venerable winery Château Lanessan, including its old stables, and learn about the winemaking process. After a tasting and LUNCH we make our way to lovely St. Emilion, a hill village occupying a privileged position. After checking into our hotel, we take a get-acquainted stroll around town. OVERNIGHT – ST. EMILION

■ Day 2 (Monday, May 13)

This morning, after an orientation to the historic land of Dordogne and to our tour, climb aboard St. Emilion's little tourist train for a spin through the old streets and surrounding vineyards. Then we walk to a fine LUNCH at an excellent bistro. In the afternoon we visit St. Emilion's Monolithic Church – Europe's largest church carved out of living rock. Late in the day, enjoy free time or come along for sparkling wine enjoyed in a shaded garden next to a ruined cloister. OVERNIGHT – ST. EMILION

■ Day 3 (Tuesday, May 14)

Leaving St. Emilion, we head to lovely Brantôme. We check into our riverside hotel, then stroll the streets before taking a cruise on the Drôme River. Later there is free time in charming Brantôme. OVERNIGHT – BRANTOME

■ Day 4 (Wednesday, May 15)

In the morning, we visit the magnificent Château of Hautefort, perched on a lofty ridge and surrounded by beautiful gardens. The castle is so perfectly Renaissance that it served as the setting of the film Ever After, with Drew Barrymore. After lunch we visit the pretty village of St. Jean-de-Côle, officially classed as one of the most beautiful villages of France. Back in Brantôme, we enjoy free time before DINNER in our hotel's outstanding restaurant. OVERNIGHT – BRANTOME

■ Day 5 (Thursday, May 16)

This morning we visit Brantôme's abbey, founded by Charlemagne in 769. Then we enjoy a Michelin-starred LUNCH in a nearby village. In the afternoon we make the drive just a few minutes downriver to the lovely village of Bourdeilles, boasting a château, a panoramic park and a humpback bridge over the Drôme River. OVERNIGHT – BRANTOME

■ Day 6 (Friday, May 17)

It's time to leave Brantôme. In late morning we arrive in lively Périgueux, the chief town for the region – your chance to visit the curious, domed cathedral. Then we head south into the heart of Périgord, stopping along the way to experience a site inhabited in prehistoric and medieval times – the remarkable cliff of Roque St. Christophe. Near day's end we come to Sarlat-la-Canéda, a magical town of authentic Renaissance architecture. Our six-night stay in the exceedingly comfortable hotel Villa des Consuls allows us to relax and enjoy Sarlat. Do make time to stroll the cobbled streets after dark, when old Sarlat is illuminated by gaslight. OVERNIGHT – SARLAT

■ Day 7 (Saturday, May 18)

Sarlat-la-Canéda has what many consider France's most renowned outdoor market. Along with the imposing town church and the ancient town, the market is well worth a half-day's exploration. We shop in the market for a gourmet picnic lunch, then head for the magnificent gardens of Marqueyssac, where we picnic before touring the gardens and château grounds. DINNER in Sarlat. OVERNIGHT – SARLAT

■ Day 8 (Sunday, May 19)

This morning we learn why this part of France has been called the World Capital of Prehistory. Our first visit is to the cave of Rouffignac, where we take an electric train to access galleries filled with prehistoric images. Then we arrive in the deep Dordogne countryside for an authentic country LUNCH. Later, in the village of Les Eyzies, we take a guided visit of the National Museum of Prehistory. OVERNIGHT – SARLAT

■ Day 9 (Monday, May 20)

The wild and untamed country to the east of Sarlat is on our agenda as we make a day trip to the area's most revered pilgrimage site – medieval Rocamadour. Here we visit the astounding village, clinging to the face of its cliff, as well as several pilgrimage chapels whose fame in the middle ages brought travelers from throughout Europe. In the afternoon we descend to the Dordogne River, to the pretty village of Carennac, officially enshrined on the list of Most Beautiful Villages of France. OVERNIGHT – SARLAT

■ Day 10 (Tuesday, May 21)

Our first stop today is Lascaux IV, a recent (late 2016) interpretive center containing an exact replica of the cave of Lascaux, whose 15,000-year-old paintings have made it what has been called “the Sistine Chapel of prehistoric art.” After ample time to discover this sprawling center, we return to Les Eyzies to visit the rock shelter called Abri Cro-Magnon, lying at the foot of a limestone cliff. Cro-Magnon gave its name to modern humans. Finally, back in Sarlat, say goodbye to one of France's loveliest towns. OVERNIGHT – SARLAT

■ Day 11 (Wednesday, May 22)

This morning we pass through beautiful and unspoiled back country, then cross the Dordogne River to the Château of Les Milandes, once owned by American singer-dancer Josephine Baker. After a visit, we climb to the perched village of Domme, which enjoys a view over miles of Dordogne River countryside. Following LUNCH and free time here, we descend to the Dordogne River and the remarkable village of La Roque Gageac. Here, we board a boat, a replica of the old river craft called the garbare, for an excursion. OVERNIGHT – SARLAT

■ Day 12 (Thursday, May 23)

Leaving the Dordogne, we head west, back toward Bordeaux. By 10 a.m. we are in the bastide (walled town from the 1200s) of Monpazier, with time to explore its old streets on market day. After LUNCH at the Michelin-starred La Tour des Vents, we continue on, arriving late in the day at the Bordeaux airport and checking into the comfortable Novotel. OVERNIGHT – BORDEAUX AIRPORT

■ Getaway day (Friday, May 24)

It's time to say au revoir to France as you fly home from Bordeaux airport.
